RE: Amendments to the Land Use Bylaw – 29 Melrose Street

At a meeting held June 22, 2009 Amherst Town Council passed a motion not to give first reading to an amendment to the Land Use Bylaw which would have changed the zoning on the property located at 29 Melrose Street from General Residential to Institutional. The proposed amendment would have allowed a non-residential day care centre with over 40 children and seven staff to operate on the property. The amendment previously received negative recommendations from both the Planning Advisory Committee and Town Planning staff.
